

Wyoming Department of Education

Dr. Jim McBride, Superintendent of Public Instruction

Hathaway Building, 2nd Floor, 2300 Capitol Avenue

Cheyenne, WY 82002-0050

Phone 307-777-7673 Fax 307-777-6234 Website www.k12.wy.us

MEMORANDUM NO. 2009-038

TO: School District Superintendents

FROM: Dr. Jim McBride

DATE: February 27, 2009

SUBJECT: Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership (HOBY) Wyoming

Important – Please Share

HOBY (Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership) Wyoming will be held June 12-14, 2009 in Cheyenne, and is currently taking nominations for students to attend. Don't let your students miss out on this valuable program that has educated and motivated more than 355,000 high school students! HOBY is confident you know at least one 10th grader with demonstrated or potential leadership skills. Show your students you care and will invest in their future. Students can be nominated by contacting:

Noah Buckley, Director of Admissions
University of Wyoming
nbuckley@uwyo.edu
307-766-5160

Partial scholarships, provided by the Wyoming Business Council, are available to assist schools with the cost of attendance, if needed.

HOBY provides seminars designed to cultivate: superior critical thinking skills, enhanced leadership skills, better understanding of the democratic process, improved goal setting skills and an enhanced realization of the importance of leadership. More information can be found at www.hoby.org.

JM:tcl